Your child, has recently been brought to our attention.

Although National Talent Associates is the largest firm in the country supplying children for print advertising and television commercials, it is not a school nor does it function in any way as a training organization.

If we are able to develop complete information about your youngster, it is quite possible we could be interested. If you would please call our New Jersey office before 2:30 P.M. at (201)-575-7300, we will try to fill in the details.

Please be advised that this inquiry does not place you or N.T.A. under any obligation.

Sincerely yours,
